

An International Symposium on "Research Assessment: Implications, Methodology, and Best Practices" (18/02/2014)

Dear all,

As you well know, research is a core function of all institutions of higher education, and its performance is critical to an institution's reputation and ranking. In order to learn more on this topic and discuss some insights on research assessment, the Library has organized an international symposium on "Research Assessment: Implications, Methodology, and Best Practices", which will be held on Monday, 24 February 2014 at the University of Macau Library (on current campus, Taipa, Macau). This symposium is jointly organized by the University of Macau Library and Thomson Reuters.

A symposium website has been created at: <http://library.umac.mo/html/events/symposium2014/index.html>, where you will find useful information such as the preliminary agenda.

For people who intend to join the symposium, please enrol at: <http://ip-science.interest.thomsonreuters.com/Research.Evaluation.Seminar-Macau2014>. All fees (including lunch) are waived. Seats are limited and registration will be made on a first-come-first-served basis.

If you have any questions, please contact Ms. Lillian Tam or Ms. Winnie Leung:
